

AMIR BASHIR

WordPress Developer

ABOUT ME

I am a dedicated WordPress developer with 2 years of professional experience, specializing in Elementor, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Shopify and WooCommerce. I have expertise in bug fixing, creative design, troubleshooting, and responsive design. Additionally, I am proficient in GoHighLevel (GHL) for CRM automation and Webflow for building visually appealing, fully customizable websites. I recently graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science from Superior University, Lahore

EXPERIENCE

WordPress Developer / Go High Level / WebFlow 2024 – 2024 carpe diem (Remote)

During my time at Carpe Diem, I expanded my skills significantly, particularly in WordPress, GoHighLevel, and Webflow. As an Automation Associate working remotely, I contributed to delivering customized, efficient solutions while collaborating closely with the team to achieve high-quality results. This experience allowed me to deepen my expertise in automation and web development, enhancing my ability to meet diverse client needs effectively.

WordPress Developer 2023 – 2024 Preesoft (Onsite)

During my time at Preesoft, I experienced rapid growth, gaining valuable expertise in WordPress development. I played a key role in delivering user-friendly, creative websites tailored to meet client expectations, while collaborating closely with the team to ensure high-quality outcomes.

WordPress Developer 2023 - 2023 Conzummate Tech (Onsite)

At Conzummate Tech, I further enhanced my WordPress development skills, focusing on creating dynamic and engaging websites. I contributed significantly to projects by translating client ideas into functional, aesthetically pleasing websites, ensuring seamless user experiences.

WordPress Developer 2022- 2023 Rwbiko (Onsite)

I'm appreciative of a year of fast growth and significant achievements at Rwbiko, where I've gained extensive experience with WordPress Development. As a committed team player, I've been important in creating interesting and user-friendly websites that perfectly complement the ideas of our clients.
